All Scripture quotations in this book are taken from the King James Version of the Bible.

"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.

That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works."

(II Tim. 3:16, 17)

DEDICATION

Dedicated to the memory of my Aunt Evelyn Reno and Miss Bernice Jordan, who prayed for and encouraged me much in my youth. Their gentle Christian manner helped me greatly.

Further, I dedicate this to the memory of Herman and Vivian Harvey who poured much into me while I was in their youth group.

FOREWORD

The following is a result of much Bible reading, meditation, prayer and practical application. God has blessed me and I want to share these insights. I trust that you the reader will study the scriptures and make great progress on this subject.

We have lost so much that needs to be recovered.

May God bless all of you through the Bible (KJV) to expand your learning ability towards our created potential.

PREFACE

It is amazing but true – you can improve your ability to learn! I did not learn these principles in 18+ years of education nor from a book. They were discovered through ongoing Bible reading.

I am convinced that our forefathers knew these Bible principles. It seems quite evident that our culture adopted them, particularly in the area of education. I think it is only too obvious that they have been replaced by humanistic philosophy, resulting in less real learning.

In the 1950's my father, a high school principal, teacher and guidance counselor, stated that conversion resulted in an average increase of IQ scores of approximately 10 points. That seems perfectly consistent with Bible teaching.

I have watched these laws produce increased learning from kindergarten through old age in those who will allow God to assist them.
