PREFACE

The following notes have been developed over a period of 45 plus years of pastoring. They are the result of 60 years as a Christian and reading my Bible, learning from over 80 Bible teachers, and teaching common people. They will bear similarities to others and their writings. I have benefited from their labors. I greatly appreciate what has been done and wish I had the eyesight and time to retrace my studies and give credit where it is due.

May God get praise and glory from what proves helpful. I take responsibility for that which is in error. May we all aim to follow the motto, "The Bible, the whole Bible and nothing but the Bible."

CHAPTER 1

THE SCRIPTURES

What a person believes about the Bible will determine what they will believe about the teachings of the Bible. A weakness in the doctrine of the Scriptures usually shows up in other areas later. The shallowness and heresies of our day are the result of wrong thinking about inspiration, preservation, interpretation, application, and the sufficiency of the Scriptures. Every cult and ism can be exposed at this point.

II Tim. 3:15-17

Five purposes of Scriptures

Salvation

Doctrine

Reproof

Correction

Instruction in Righteousness

Sufficiency – What the Scriptures can do in and of themselves:

“Able”

“Perfect” well-rounded, properly balanced, fully prepared

“All good works”

Such adequacy does not require extra Biblical helps

Origin – “of God”

Inspiration

Not to be confused with two other processes:

Revelation – God revealing truths and/or His Son to us (I Cor. 2:9,10; Matt. 11:25-27; 18:17)

Illumination – getting light, insight, and understanding on a given subject

Opposite of expire (breathe out or lose breath of life)

Breathe in the breath of life

Process God used for giving Scriptures

Not inspired men

Inspired Scriptures

Similar to mouth-to-mouth resuscitation of drowning victims ... one breathes for the other, thus dominating the breathing
This process was used exclusively for Scripture

II Pet. 1:16-21

Scriptures are contrasted with devised fables
Scriptures are superior to personal experience, even that of the Mount of Transfiguration
Scriptures did not come by man's will
The Holy Ghost was the source and the force of inspiration
"moved" the man
God only used holy men

I Pet. 1:9-12

Men wrote and then tried to get understanding
Words, not thoughts, were given by God
Words would have to be God's words, not men's words (Matt. 4:4)
If, as some teach, God gave thoughts and men then put in their own words, obviously they would have understood what they wrote:
The Scriptures would be of no higher value than the intelligence of the writers
We would be robbed of the preciseness and clarity of the Scriptures, for they could then have been written in a multitude of ways as long as the thought might be found therein

I Thess. 2:13

The Bible is God's Word, not man's word
The Bible is to be received as God's Word
Salvation is tied to our attitude towards the Scriptures (Prov. 13:13).

Matt. 22:29

Ignorance of the Scriptures leads to error (Hosea 4:1-14)
Jesus expected people to have a working knowledge of the Old Testament

II Pet. 3:15, 16 – Wrong attitude or use of Scriptures brings destruction

Rev. 22:18, 19

Danger of adding to the Scriptures
Danger of taking away from the Scriptures

God is obviously finished writing Scriptures

Matt. 15:1-6

Two foundations of belief

Tradition

Scripture

Jesus sided with Scripture against tradition

Religious leaders had used tradition to avoid the commands of Scripture

Luke 16:29-31

Sufficiency of Scriptures to bring sinners to repentance

Scriptures have more authority than one returning from the dead

Luke 24:25-27

Jesus expected a belief in all of the Scriptures (as written)

All the Scriptures speak of Jesus

We should so study that we could start at any place and point someone to Jesus

There is far more to Jesus than most people suspect

Luke 24:44-49

We need God's help to have our understanding opened

Our ministry must be preceded by getting an understanding from the Scripture

The extent of our ministry is related to our understanding of the Scripture

John 5:39, 45-47

Scriptures alone can't save

The Scriptures alone tell of Jesus who can save.

Study to see Jesus

Doubt one part and you cannot believe in Jesus

Especially this applies to the first five books of the Bible including Creation, Fall, Flood, Law, Miracles, etc.

I Cor. 2:9-14

Scriptures are taught by God Himself (I John 2:20, 27)

Believers only can get a proper understanding

Heb. 1:1-3

The Bible is progressive in revelation

Consider the progress in the prophecies of Jesus

Consider the Bible:

Unique in trustworthiness: no conflict with science, geography, racial history, chronological history, biographical history, events of history – archeology never contradicts it

Unique in subject matter: sin, sinners, sovereign God, hell, salvation, prophecy, miraculous, Saviour, judgment, view of evil, view of the world

Unity of purpose: 66 books, 40+ authors (prince, King, priest, farmer, shepherd, doctor, slave, tax-collector prisoner, fisherman, tentmaker), 3 languages, 3 continents, 16 centuries, various cultures (Egyptian, Jewish, Syrian, Medeo-Persian, Babylonian, Roman)

Fulfillment of prophecy – in precise accuracy, great detail, given long before flow of events in that direction; includes the miraculous happening, etc.

Lives changed by its teachings

Preservation principle: against great foes, Israel as a people, the Church as a witness, and the Scriptures themselves!

Amos 8:11, 12

Prophetic passage telling of future problem

Coming famine of the "the words of the Lord"

No evidence of a shortage of religion

Desire for the Word is present but the supply is gone

Jer. 23:30

God's Words are stolen from people

Perhaps something much weaker is left in its place

The stealing is done by religious leaders who are near, or neighbors to those stolen from

God is "against" all that would remove the actual words of God from us

II Cor. 2:17

The corruption of God's Word was well underway in Paul's day

The majority seemed to be for corruption

The position for purity of God's Word seems to have been held by the minority even then

I Pet. 1:23, 25

The Scriptures are necessary for one to be "born again."

Some of the traits of the "Word of God" (by which people are saved) are:

not corruptible but incorruptible

liveth forever

abideth forever

endureth forever

There must be two kinds; pure and corrupt

God blesses that which is pure

never will be unsettled

Location of the settling is in heaven

Psm. 119:160

God's Word has always been true

God's Word has existed from the beginning

God's judgments will all survive and stand the test of time – endure forever

Psm. 138:2

God has "magnified" His Word

God cares more about His Word than His Name

Consider Commandment #3 and (Rev. 22:18, 19)

O.T. Law is safe in accuracy

Jot and tittle are Hebrew letter markings

Mark 13:31 (also Luke 21:33)

Words of Jesus are safe in accuracy
Jesus' Words can never be destroyed

Luke 16:17

Difficulty in changing one letter of the Law
Law will continue, – not fail

John 10:35b

"Scripture cannot be broken"
The Bible is a unit not to be broken into pieces
Scripture must be fulfilled (Acts 13:29)

John 17:17

Bible is to be trusted
Not only full of truth; but is truth in and of itself
One of the answers to Pilate's question, "What is truth?" (John 18:38a)

Psm. 119:140

Purity claimed for Scriptures
Purity of unquestionable character, - "very pure"

Psm. 12:6, 7

Purity is complete, – like the finest silver
God guarantees the preservation of the very words, forever

Consider the versions:
